

The monthly newsletter for World Book Online

The Holiday Season is Here

The holiday season is an excellent time to learn about global traditions and cultural celebrations. World Book offers fascinating articles that explore the history and customs of holidays celebrated around the world.

Discover the origins of Hanukkah, the significance of Kwanzaa, or the traditions of Christmas in different countries. This knowledge not only broadens your horizons but also fosters a greater appreciation for diverse cultures.

In this month's World Book Wired, we are sharing ideas to learn and engage this holiday season. From crafting your own decorations to trying out recipes from various cuisines, there are countless ways to immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of global celebrations.
