

The monthly newsletter for World Book Online

Fall is in full swing!

With Halloween just around the corner, it's tough for kids to hold back their excitement. One effective way to keep your students engaged and learning as trick-or-treating approaches is to incorporate Halloween themes into the classroom.

In this edition of World Book Wired, we delve into a variety of our spooky (yet educational) print series titles! From ghosts to vampires, disgusting bugs or cryptic creatures, take a look at our collection of Halloween books for children to inspire a love of reading while embracing the spirit of the season.

Below are some fantastic titles that can be integrated into your lesson plans. Happy Halloween, and may your classrooms be filled with creativity and spook-tacular fun!

Abnormal Field Guides for Cryptic Creatures

Picture this: Your face on the front page of the paper with the caption, "The only person to find Bigfoot!" Professor Abner Normal has all the tricks to lead readers on an educational (and unconventional) safari in search of the world's most mysterious creatures.

Available in eBook and print

Ugh! Yuck! And Whoa!

The world is full of animals with strange shapes, dangerous defenses, and bizarre habits. The Ugh! Yuck! and Whoa! series highlights the most extreme among them: the grossest, the deadliest, and the ugliest! Learning about lesser-known creatures they may never have seen before (and might not want to see again!) helps children to better understand ecosystems and the natural world.

Available in eBook and print

Survival Stories

When faced with nature's life-and-death circumstances, how would you respond?

Survival Stories recounts true stories of people overcoming adversity and surviving against the odds.

Readers will learn which decisions led to their survival as well as tips and tricks on how to survive in similar situations.

Available in print only

October Webinars

National Arts & Humanities Month with WBO

Mon, Oct 7th at 1:00 PM CDT

Whether you are interested in exploring the history of art or understanding different cultural practices, World Book Online has something to offer.

REGISTER HERE >>

Resources for a Healthy Mindset

Wed, Oct 16th, 11:00 AM CDT

Learn about World Book's resources to support a Healthy Mindset with features such as our Life Skills center in Discover, which teaches skills you need to learn and know to make the most out of life.

REGISTER HERE >>

Google Classroom and World Book Online

Wed, Oct 30th, 1:30 PM CDT

Did you know World Book integrates with Google Classroom? Come learn how to easily create assignments, have students turn in content, and more!

REGISTER HERE >>

Día de los Muertos

Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) is a Mexican holiday that honors the dead. Use this WebQuest to learn more about this holiday, the people who celebrate it, and the country where it is celebrated.

Elections 101

November 5th is quickly approaching. With important elections on the horizon, do your student know the ins and out about voting and the officials who will represent them in the government? Use this WebQuest to learn more about the election process and voting.

World Book Insiders

You're already getting questions and requests- why not have all the solutions? A little bit of professional development and collaboration with like-minded people goes a long way, once you become a World Book Insider. You will not only have the tools you need to support staff, students, or patrons but you will learn ways to take those resources to the next level and earn perks along the way. Watch the informational webinar to learn more and apply today!

Lets Get Social!

Are you following World Book on social? Our social channels are the best place to keep up with new products, feature innovations, promotions, and fun facts! Follow us on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter!

Schedule a Training